

A WEEKLY WORD – Renee Noseworthy

Readings for Week of April 7, 2019

Isaiah 43:16-21

Psalm 126

Philippians 3:4b-14

John 12:1-8

Psalm 126:1-3 says, “When the Lord restored the fortunes of Zion, we were like those who dream. Then our mouth was filled with laughter, and our tongue with shouts of joy; then it was said among the nations, “The Lord has done great things for them.” The Lord has done great things for us, and we rejoiced.”

There are times in life when it seems like everything that can go wrong, does go wrong. Sometimes it can feel like the hurdles that we are facing right now, are insurmountable and will never end. However, that is not the case.

It is always true that the Lord has, and continues to do, great things for us.

My prayer for all of us is that the Lord will open our eyes, so that we will see Him and the great things He is doing for us.

May we rejoice in His grace and His goodness today and always!
