

A WEEKLY WORD – Renee Noseworthy

Readings for the week of May 26, 2019

Acts 16:9-15

Psalm 67

Revelation 21:10, 22: 1-5

Luke 24: 36-52

Luke 24: 44-49 says, Then he said to them, “These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you— that everything written about me in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms must be fulfilled.” Then he opened their minds to understand the scriptures, and he said to them, “Thus it is written, that the Messiah is to suffer and to rise from the dead on the third day, and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be proclaimed in his name to all nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. And see, I am sending upon you what my Father promised; so stay here in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high.”

Through our repentance and His forgiveness of our sins, we can be restored to relationship with God. When we have stayed in His presence, we can be clothed with power from on high. Through the infilling of the Holy Spirit, we can fulfil God’s plan and His purpose for our lives. The Holy Spirit helps us, comforts us, strengthens us, convinces us of our sinfulness and need for God, and so much more. He is always with us.
