

A WEEKLY WORD – Renee Noseworthy

Readings for the week of June 16, 2019

Proverbs 8:1-4. 22-31

Psalm 8

Romans 5:1-5

John 16:12-15

In John 16:12-15, Jesus says, “I still have many things to say to you, but you cannot bear them now. When the Spirit of truth comes, he will guide you into all the truth; for he will not speak on his own, but will speak whatever he hears, and he will declare to you the things that are to come. He will glorify me, because he will take what is mine and declare it to you. All that the Father has is mine. For this reason I said that he will take what is mine and declare it to you.”

Sometimes we wish we knew more than is natural for us to know, in our human limitations.

There is good news!

God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit work together in perfect unity.

Through the Holy Spirit - God the Father, is speaking to us. Jesus promised us that the Holy Spirit of God would guide us into all truth.

We can know God’s heart, and His voice, as we spend time with him in prayer, reading His Word and listening for Him to speak to us. That may be in His still, small voice, or through our circumstances.

John 10:3-4 says, “The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep hear his voice. He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has brought out all his own, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow him because they know his voice.”
