Trinity Sunday

Father's Day

Peoples' worship is disrupted when cell phones ring. As a gift to each other, we turn off our cell phone ringers during worship.

Dear Friends,

Welcome to worship. Happy Father's Day to the men of the congregation! Today is known as Trinity Sunday, a celebration of God as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Since the 10th Century, the church has celebrated the Holy Trinity on the Sunday after Pentecost. This is most fitting as we contemplate the wonder of our Salvation, won for us by the Son, sent from the Father in the power of the Holy Spirit. The word "trinity" is not found in Holy Scripture but God as three persons is referenced in many places. The Trinity celebrates the mystery of one God in three Persons. While we can never fathom the depth of this mystery, it can be helpful to think of God the Father as Creator, God the Son as Redeemer and God the Holy Spirit as Sanctifier and Sustainer.

It is my fervent prayer that you will be able to enter fully into today's worship. If you need prayer for yourself or someone else, please make your request known either to me or to one of our wardens- Hayward or Herman. If you are a visitor, please accept the hospitality of our congregation.

JOINT SERVICE WITH GOOD SAMARITAN: Our Primate, Archbishop Foley Beach and his wife, Allison, will be vacationing in our Province as guests of Bishop and Mrs. Harvey. The service will begin at 10:30 AM. Everyone from both congregations are kindly asked to attend; the Archbishop would like to meet as many of us as possible. Please bring your offering to that service in your regular envelope. Please note: there will NOT be a regular 3 PM service at St. Stephen the Martyr next Sunday, June 23rd.
