

A THOUGHT....

As they stood in front of the great cathedral of Amiens, a friend asked Heinrich Heine why no one was building great cathedrals anymore. Heinrich replied:

“Cher ami, it’s really very easy.

In those days people had convictions;

we moderns have opinions,

and it makes more than opinion to build a Gothic cathedral.”

Peoples' worship is disrupted when cell phones ring.
As a gift to each other, we turn off our cell phone

Welcome

Welcome to St. Stephen the Martyr! Whether you are a regular worshipper or a visitor, I invite you to participate fully in the worship. Today's worship is non-liturgical; that is to say, it is not a Eucharist. Rather, we are sharing in a time of praise through music, preaching and prayer. Toward the end of our time together, there will be an opportunity to receive prayer for yourself or someone for whom you have a concern. All you need do is go to the back of the church where you will find a prayer team ready and willing to pray with you. I encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity. Nothing is too big or too small for the Lord. The Bible reminds us that He is concerned about every area of our lives.

I pray that today's worship will address your greatest need.
