Welcome

Welcome to the Parish of St. Stephen the Martyr. If you visiting with us, please accept the hospitality of our congregation. If you are looking for a church community, we would love to discuss the possibility of having you join ours; you will find a tear-off request form attached to this bulletin. Simply fill it in and place it in the offering plate.

We are a congregation few in number but large in our desire to follow Christ. We seek to be open to the Holy Spirit and desire to live under His direction and power. We believe the Bible to be God's Word to us, written by human beings under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. We believe, therefore, that the Bible contains all things necessary for our Salvation and is authoritative in our matters of Christian belief and living. As a Christian congregation, we believe that Jesus' ministry and of healing and reconciliation continues today through His church. Thus, we provide every opportunity for individuals to receive prayer for healing, and have witnessed the mighty power of God at work in this ministry.

St. Stephen the Martyr is a congregation within the Anglican tradition. Therefore, our worship is liturgical; that is to say, we use a set format that takes its roots in the ancient church and has been revised throughout the centuries, particularly during the Protestant and English Reformations. We believe that the liturgy is God's gift to the Church. Its purpose is to assist us in the worship of God and is not to be used so rigidly that it becomes idolatrous. As a result, we seek to use the liturgy in a way that is flexible, informal and inviting. On occasion, we dispense with the liturgy and worship in a simple style of prayer and praise using music, prayer and preaching. No matter what form our worship takes, the preaching ministry is never set aside. We believe that we must take every opportunity to share the News of Salvation.

Finally, St. Stephen the Martyr is a parish in the Anglican Network in Canada (ANiC). ANiC is a diocese in the Anglican Church in North America and part of the Global Anglican Fellowship of Confessing Anglicans (GAFCON). Our churches are spread from Bonavista to Vancouver Island. ANiC is part of the resurgence in North America of orthodox Anglicanism- the historic, Biblically faithful, authentic way of following Jesus and being part of the "One Holy Catholic and Apostolic Church." Our mission is to Build Biblically faithful, Gospel sharing, Anglican Churches.
